

FRIENDS IN DEED*

Dear Friend,

Each week, I do my best to share how your generosity and commitment to FID is having a direct impact on the lives of the people we serve. Today, I want to tell you about a man named David, who benefitted from our Homelessness Prevention Program.

David is a hard worker, someone who likes to help out however he can, fixing broken windows, painting old walls, gardening, around the house - whatever needs doing, David is your man. That all changed when he sustained a back injury at the job he had held for over 20 years. Suddenly David found himself unable to work, with doctors telling him he wasn't likely to ever be able to hold down a manual labor job ever again. Fast forward over a year, and David is close to receiving a settlement from his employer but, in the meantime, is on the cusp of being homeless. He came to Friends In Deed after receiving an eviction notice at his apartment complex and, having already used up his savings to get by, was unable to pay it and afraid he would soon be out on the street. Friends In Deed is working with David to make sure he can stay in his home until his settlement is resolved and he can once again support himself.

While the majority of the country is glued to their TVs, phones, and computers waiting for the results of the election, we know that millions of people spent the week struggling to pay their rent, care for their children, put food on the table, or deal with a life on the street. It is not like they didn't know the election was happening, and many of them voted, but the priorities didn't change, the fear didn't change, the anxiety didn't change; and our compassion, connection and dignity didn't change either. Regardless of what is happening around us, we are here and committed to helping the most vulnerable in our community, including people like David.

I don't need to tell you that we can only do our work with your generosity: but I will anyway! Thanks for supporting FID and making sure we are well equipped to meet the needs of the most vulnerable.

Blessings, have a safe and lovely weekend,

Rabbi Joshua
