Dear Friend,

In keeping with the theme of celebrating The Women's Room’s 14th birthday, this week we received a note on our Google Review page. It was not signed by the woman.

"Once upon a time... a few years ago... I experienced extreme hardship... and this place was a godsend! The staff was incredible, friendly, compassionate, and welcoming. Lots of activities and classes were offered (pre-pandemic). They have a place for me to wash myself and rest a bit and people to socialize with. The Women’s Room doesn’t look like a center... it feels like a home. Because of this warm and inviting place, I was able to reground myself, regain a new support system, and essentially rebuild myself. I’m so grateful for my experience with Friends In Deed and their sweet Women’s Room. I made some wonderful, AMAZING and TALENTED friends... whom I still stay in touch with ‘til this day.’’

It is notes like this which remind us why we do the work we do each
