Dear Friend,

Recently, Tim, our Food Pantry Director, received a phone call from a woman asking if she could get food. She was calling from Boyle Heights. He responded “You are welcome to get food here, but there are food pantries closer to where you live.” She responded “I want to come to Friends In Deed because I hear you have good food.” This is not the first time we’ve heard this from people. We are proud of the fact that our pantry community knows that we go out of our way to provide good food. As an example, our pantry community loves getting fresh fruits and vegetables and we love being able to provide them. When our pantry community comes to pick up food, we are able to give them 9-12 pounds of produce per visit. This means we distribute about 4,000 pounds of produce every week. This is what makes FID special and, thanks to all of you, we are able to make it happen!

As we continue to share about our honorees for this year’s Jazz
Encore! event, this week, let me introduce to someone who probably doesn’t need an introduction for most of you: Dr. Richard Cheung. There is not enough space here to share all of the ways in which Richard has been instrumental in helping to make FID what is today. Richard came to Friends In Deed through his volunteering at the Bad Weather Shelter, a program that has continued to be close to his heart. After being invited to join the board, it was soon clear that Richard’s passion and skills would propel him to becoming the board president, a position he held for seven years.

In that role, he helped to keep FID from a financial collapse, brought on new board members, raised money, talked about FID to everyone in the community (and I mean everyone!), and led the organization to the point of being able to consider a full-time Executive Director. When I interviewed, Richard was the first person I talked with, and his enthusiasm was a huge part of what attracted me to this position. For Richard, the guests and clients are part of his extended family, and he has gone out of his way many times to help those most in need. And, Richard is a prolific and widely successful schmoozer! His smile, warmth, and easygoing nature make it impossible not to care about what he cares about; in this case, Friends In Deed. We couldn’t be more excited to honor Richard, and know that he will continue to be an integral part of our leadership.

So, in order to help us continue providing healthy, fresh, and yummy food (including thousands of pounds of produce), and in honor of a leader like Richard, I hope that you make a generous contribution to this year’s Jazz Encore! event. You can become a sponsor at a variety of levels or make a donation. Help us to reach our ambitious goal!

Blessings, and have a lovely weekend
