

Weekly Message

Dear Friend,

In the past few weeks, I have told you about Dana, who came out of her shell and begun to receive case management because of the flower arranging opportunities in The Women's Room; I have shared a day in the life of our Substance Abuse specialist, Olivia, who spent an entire day helping Rose to procure the needed documentation to get her birth certificate; and I wrote about Danielle, Oscar, and their young children who received rental assistance and an arrears payment to avoid eviction when Oscar became ill and couldn't work. I share these stories because they describe the work we do each and every week, the human beings we help, and the lives that can be transformed. Today, I am asking for your help.

We are one week away from our Cooking for a Cause event, which promises to be an awesome night! Thank you so much to those of you that have sponsored and bought VIP tickets, we are very grateful! However, we are still around $30,000 from our goal, so we also need all those who haven't yet joined in. Here is one breakdown of how we can make it happen:

1 person gives $30,000
6 people give $5,000
12 people give $2,500
60 people give $500
300 people give $100
600 people give $50
30,000 people give $1

If you are able to join one of these categories, now is the time! It is only with your support that we can help Dana and Rose, Danielle and Oscar and their children, and all the hundreds of other people who come through our doors each week.

Cooking for a Cause is one of two new fundraising events which incorporate our mission, the community, a fun night, and the raising of necessary funds. Thank you for all your help, and we hope to see many of you next Friday night for Pasadena's own Institute of Culinary Education cooking competition - students, start your stoves!

A reminder that FID programs and offices will be closed Monday in honor of Juneteenth.

Blessings, have a lovely weekend, and Happy Father's Day to all the dads!

Rabbi Joshua

FREEDOM DAY

Juneteenth, or Freedom Day, is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. This holiday is considered the longest running African-American holiday and has been called America's second Independence Day. It was on June 19, 1865 that Union soldiers, led by Maj. General Gordon Granger, delivered the order proclaiming freedom for slaves in Texas.
