Dear Friend,

In the Food Pantry, we have almost 100 regular volunteers. They come from a variety of backgrounds and most of them don't know any other volunteers when they start. Friendships grow out of the different volunteer shifts. One Tuesday afternoon, there was a bit of crossover between an afternoon volunteer, Claudia, and a mid-shift volunteer, Keith. Claudia has been volunteering since 2015 when she was in college. Keith is a retired pediatrician, who has only been volunteering a few months. It was a busy Tuesday and Claudia was checking clients in at the front door. Keith was bringing produce in and restocking the tables. Their paths didn't cross directly, but Claudia asked Tim, our Program Director, "was that Dr. Keith? A pediatrician?" Tim said, "yes," and Claudia responded, "he was my pediatrician!" Tim yelled out to Keith and brought these two people together- two adults that knew each other from when Claudia was just a small girl and Keith was still a doctor. There were hugs, smiles, and a lot of laughter. Tim said, “I guess the world can be a small place.” I love stories like this!
On a more somber note, last week we lost an amazing woman, Dorothy Edwards. After years of experiencing homelessness - living on the streets or in her truck with her trusted canine companion, battling addiction and mental illness, and experiencing physical decline - Dorothy found her way back. Thanks to amazing outreach workers, time in The Women’s Room, and caring individuals, she got housing, got sober, got teeth, and became a leading advocate for others. She was employed at Housing Works, was a national spokesperson, received awards from elected officials, and was a beloved member of our Pasadena community. Sadly, after a battle with cancer, Dorothy passed away at the age of 65. I hope you will read the piece about her in Pasadena Now. I had the pleasure of knowing Dorothy, talking with her, and seeing her wonderful smile on many occasions, especially when she was walking her dog. May Dorothy’s soul be with God in peace, and may her memory and life’s story be a blessing. She will be sorely missed.

With dedicated volunteers, committed advocates, and amazing humans like Dorothy, we are bringing sparks of light and love to what can often seem like a very dark world, especially in times like those we are experiencing right now. We are very grateful to have you as part of our FID community, helping us all fulfill our motto of “doing together what we cannot do alone.”

Blessings and have a lovely weekend,
Rabbi Joshua
