Dear Friend,

While I usually share positive, happy stories in this space, there are also the heartbreaking ones, where sometimes we can’t help. Recently, we had an older lady reach out to us after her daughter kicked her out of the house and she found herself homeless; a mother trying to help her middle-aged daughter avoid eviction; a man on the streets who was being belligerent and ended up in jail. It is these situations that are so draining for the souls and spirits of our staff, no matter how exhilarating the success stories may be. It is the tenacity, perseverance and ability of the staff to come back to work the next day that is so amazing to me. I’m so lucky to work with these amazing individuals!

We are just two weeks away from Stories from the Street! Our goal is to reach $120,000 and we are really almost there. Did you know that in the last few years, we have raised several hundred thousand dollars from donations of $100 or less? So, if you haven’t given yet, please consider supporting us now. And remember, everyone is welcome to attend, as we are not selling tickets, but we ask that you register so we know how many folks to expect. We would really like to have a full house (the amphitheater holds approximately 300), and maybe you will like something at the silent auction or be inspired by the movie to contribute on the way out.

In order to keep our costs low so that the majority of the money raised goes directly to our programs, we invite you to bring a picnic dinner, with whatever food and drink you like. Alcohol is permitted in the park and the amphitheater. There will also be a taco truck with yummy food for sale. We are very excited for this event and hope to see you there!

Blessings and have a lovely weekend,
Rabbi Joshua
