Dear Friend,

This past Wednesday, I had the honor of attending my first meeting as a member of the Pasadena Human Services Commission. As commissioners, we gather monthly to discuss matters related to the health and wellbeing of all members of our community, with a particular focus this year on mental health, our unhoused residents, and early childhood education. I look forward to being a part of these conversations and helping to make recommendations to the City of Pasadena staff and city council in relation to these critical issues. If you want to learn more about the duties and responsibilities of the commission, you can visit the city's website.

We have received many positive comments about the Quarterly Newsletter, which is so lovingly and thoughtfully written by Helen Angove, our Director of Operations. Since there is so much great stuff packed into it, I want to highlight one of the stories from this quarter's edition, which was sent last Friday. And, with tomorrow being National Nonprofit Day, we celebrate the amazing volunteers that help make the work of FID possible. So, in case you missed it, please read about Annie, one of our dedicated TWR volunteers.

Finally, next Thursday is our big 130th birthday celebration! We are super excited that over 200 people have already signed up to attend – if you haven't done so already, please RSVP by Sunday so we can ensure we have enough food for everyone. We will have tacos, cake, activities, special mocktails and, most importantly, archival materials from FID's storied history, with pictures, board minutes, annual meeting programs, and other artifacts going back to the early 1900s!

Blessings and have a lovely weekend,

Rabbi Joshua
